RENO, WASHOE COUNTY, NEVADA, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 1878.

NO. 147.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

The Ohio State fair opened at Toledo on the 17th.

J. H. Slater was yesterday elected United States Senator by the Oregon legislature.

Great and increasing irritation exists in Hungary over the situation of affairs in Bosnia.

The project of raising a loan for the retirement of paper currency at Constantinople has been abandoned.

The Connecticut Democrats have nominated the old State ticket, with Erhart D. Hubbard for Governor.

Captain Jones, who commanded the Pacific Mail steamship Ariel when captured by the Alabama, died on the 17th in San Francisco.

At Ophir, Utah, on the 14th, two drunken rowdies were killed and another wounded by a man whose house they were attacking.

The last of the three villains who robbed O'Shea and killed young Joseph, at Portland, Oregon, is said to have been captured.

The German Socialists collected 150,000 marks for the expenses of the recent election, 3860 of which were from the United States.

John K. Mortimer, once a prominent actor, but latterly a drunken vagabond, committed suicide at San Francisco on the 17th by taking strychnine.

The Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows, in session at Baltimore, has elected John B. Harmon, of California, Grand Sire, and Mr. Glenn, of Georgia, Deputy Grand Sire.

Advices from Senegal to the 8th of September say that the yellow fever has almost ceased there and in Goree, where it has been epidemic since the middle of July.

At Los Angeles, on the 16th, a team belonging to a Mexican, was run over by a train on the Southern Pacific railroad. Both horses were killed, and two ladies seriously injured.

It is reported that Lord Salisbury has refused to use his influence to induce the Porte to conclude a convention with Austria, as he considers that Turkey is not alone behind in fulfilling the treaty of Berlin.

A Noble Newfoundland.

[S. F. Post.]

Mr. Hiram Hugg, of Turk street, had a large Newfoundland dog, of which he had every reason to be proud. In fact, Mr. Hugg once fell overboard from a ferryboat, and the faithful canine immediately jumped in and saved his life. Mr. H. was recently staying for a week or two at Santa Cruz, and, fearing that Ponto would pine in his absence, asked a friend, who came up every day to business, to bring the animal down with him. When the train got in the next morning everybody was bathing, as usual, and Mr. H. was teaching two young ladies in striped suits to swim, when he was suddenly seized from behind and dragged through the surf at a terrible rate. He at first thought it was a shark and yelled for some one to bring him a club. Then he saw it was his dog, and tried to keep the sand and brine out of his mouth long enough to make him let go. It wouldn't work, however. The faithful beast was bent on saving his master, and the louder he shrieked and the more he struggled the harder Ponto tugged. Just as Hugg was beside himself with fury, and the spectators standing on their heads with delight, a most responsible portion of his bathing suit was torn out and the exasperated dog owner was compelled to sit down on the beach and scratch sand up around "his person," as they say in the Police Court. Instead of properly appreciating his pet's devotion, the ungrateful Hugg goes around telling how "that infernal dog beat him out of the prettiest girl in town." Now when he goes to bathe he anchors that intelligent quadruped to a hawser post with a chain weighing about three links to the pound.

Gustave Mahe, President of the French Savings Bank at San Francisco, committed suicide on the evening of the 17th. The bank had been declared perfectly sound by the Commissioners, but it was thought that certain land security held by the bank had greatly decreased in value. The Directors had investigated and decided upon the removal of Mahe. The prospect of having to resign a position he had occupied for eighteen years is said to have caused the act.

A Montana Murder.

HELENA, Montana, Sept. 18.—A report comes from Gallatin county, Montana, of the assassination of Wellington A. Frederick, by Mike Foley, last Sunday night. They had some former difficulty. Foley had threatened Frederick's life. The latter had him arrested. Being unable to procure bail he had been confined in jail, from which he escaped, returned to Frederick's house and shot him dead. Foley escaped.

The Liberal Fenians.

LONDON, Sept. 18.—First-class passage to New York has been taken for the Fenians O'Condon and Melody. A pardon will be handed them immediately previous to sailing.

ABOUT BODIE.

The Condition of Things There—Bullion Shipments.

[Carson Appeal.]

Our friend Fred Rathbone returned from Bodie yesterday, at which place he has been sojourning for the past month or so looking at the situation. He says there is a constant influx of new people to the camp from all parts of the country, but that a great many are idle, owing to the fact that it only requires a comparative small force to work the mines there. Speaking of the business houses, all classes are doing an excellent business. Mr. Rathbone spoke especially of our townsman, John Wagner, who is conducting a large liquor house and is just minting money. Much building is being done, and more of it would be undertaken were it not for the great scarcity of lumber. Of the hotel accommodations nothing very complimentary can be said. It is the most difficult thing in the world to get a bed, and as for provisions—the less said the better. But Fred was always an epicure. The camp is full of Carson people, some doing well and others not. Of the temperature he says that it may be ever so hot in the day, in midsummer, at night it will commence to freeze as soon as the sun goes down. Our informant further adds that, in the event of another development similar to that of the Bodie mine between now and the coming spring, Bodie will be one of the liveliest camps next year on this coast.

Yesterday's stage brought up five bars of bullion, three from the Bodie mine, one from the Standard and one low grade from some outside mine. The Bodie bars aggregated $41,555 14, making the total shipments for the month $164,350 40. The Standard bar was worth $18,945 56, making the shipments for the month from this mine $83,860 69. All of which is not bad for a camp the bottom of which has "dropped out." The Bodie mine carried over a surplus of $8170,000 after paying $400,000 or $8 per share in one month's dividend. This month a $3 dividend was paid on the 14th instant, leaving $30,000 in the treasury exclusive of this month's yield. There may be a "horse" in the Burgess ledge, or a band of mustangs in the Bruce, but the stockholders of the Bodie thus far have no reason to complain.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Don't Forget It.

If you are troubled with nervousness, are disheartened, tired of life, fear death or feel out of sorts, as the saying is, you may safely conclude that you have the Dyspepsia or Liver Complaint. The liver is very apt to become torpid at this season of the year, as poisons arising from marshes, stagnant water are more numerous, and are, through inhalation, taken into the blood. Unless the liver is strong and active, and furnishes a supply of fresh and pure blood to drive out the impurities, the above mentioned symptoms surely follow, and if not heeded, end in more terrible diseases and death. White's Prairie Flower proves itself the great liver panacea. Its action on the liver is different from any medicine ever compounded. Its cures are truly wonderful. Try it. Price, twenty-five cents and seventy-five cents. For sale by our druggists, OGDEN & SHOEMAKER. an7 eod

TO-DAY'S NOMINATIONS.

As will be seen from a special dispatch elsewhere, the State convention has nominated Kinkead for Governor and Daggett for Congress. We are glad that the convention has taken the same view as the GAZETTE upon the pre-eminent fitness of these two gentlemen for the offices to which they have been nominated. Mighela was the best man that could have been chosen for Lieutenant-Governor. There is no crow in the ticket so far.

A WASTED LIFE.

The suicide of J. K. Mortimer, the actor, in a low San Francisco lodging house night before last, made a fitting end to a wasted life. There are few who will be grieved that he is gone, for he had long been dead to all that made life worth living. Mortimer was an excellent actor to the last. He might have been a first-class one had he been able to fight down the baser part. He was the original "Badger" in the "Streets of New York," when that now worn-out play was new and creating a sensation at the Olympic theatre, New York, fifteen years ago, and in that character made considerable reputation. He excelled in society plays, and when he would keep sober could always find employment in a good capacity in first-class theatres. His stage manner was easy, graceful and gentlemanly, and it was always a marvel to the public that one two-thirds of whose time was spent in the lowest dens of the city in drunken debauch could so readily assume the carriage and language suitable to the drawing-room. Mortimer was undoubtedly a man of great talent, and despite his awful excesses, a man of feeling. He felt his degradation, and to be in his sober senses was to be in hell. Therefore, he kept drunk. The efforts of friends—and he had hundreds—extended over many years, were put forth in vain to save him. His life and death form a terrible warning to bright young men who indulge themselves in the dangerous amusement of sowing wild oats. The amusement is apt to become a business from which there is no escape except in a dishonored grave. To-day Mortimer might have been rich, respected and famous, instead of having died by his own hand, a lost, drunken vagabond. A weak will and strong whisky explain the shameful life and terrible death of poor Mortimer.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Protestant clergy of San Francisco are busying themselves to bring influence to bear on the approaching constitutional convention, to induce that body to incorporate a provision for Sunday observance. It is also proposed to introduce this clause immediately after that guaranteeing impartial religious freedom, and to represent it as a necessary sequence of that, or at least as indispensable to its full realization. The Chronicle marvels at this glaring inconsistency. The Chronicle evidently has very little acquaintance with the mental methods of orthodox clergymen. The worldly mind thinks that it ought to be apparent that in a State guaranteeing impartial religious freedom, the Jew, the Musselman, the Buddhist, the Idolator and the follower of any other form of religion stands on precisely the same legal plane as the Christian and that each has as much right as the last that his holy day shall be made the legal Sabbath. The worldly mind forgets that we Christians when we have the majority are, and ever have been, piously intent upon compelling people to look at things with our eyes.

Kearney is developing a gift for delicate and biting repartee. At Worcester the other night the following little passage at arms occurred between him and one of his auditors, if the telegraph is to be believed: At this point some one exclaimed, "I don't want to hear you." Kearney—You can go plumb to hell. [Great applause.] I come here to address the workings of Worcester. [Applause.] In New York the other night a tool of capital got his mouth broke for what you are doing. [Cheers.]

Rev. Dr. Guard, of San Francisco, has discovered that no son of vulgar, uneducated parents can possibly have brains enough to acquire a first-class education, or to be in any way men tally equal to the offspring of educated parents. We remember what a shockingly poor hand Dr. Guard made of answering Colonel Ingersoll when that hard-hitter was in the metropolis. We never understood the reason until now.

What a Russian does not know about official corruption he could probably learn by a tour of this free republic. During the Crimean war a general wrote that he had purchased a thousand oxen for food for his men, and sent on vouchers and drafts. A few days later he wrote that the murrain had broken out and he had lost two hundred head of cattle, and that the remainder he considered it wise to have slaughtered, salted and tinned, bills of which were forwarded. There came another letter to say that having his doubts as to whether the meat was fit for food, he had employed a chemist to analyze it, and the man of science had pronounced it dangerous stuff, hence he had had the meat cast into the sea, in proof of which he enclosed the analyst's report and bill and the bill for taking the meat out to sea and throwing it overboard.

What is the matter with the Democrats? Are they insane on the subject of eating crow? Bradley in Nevada, Butler in Massachusetts. There's a feast. Anything that begins with a B seems to have an irresistible fascination for the teeth of the Democracy. When properly cooked, crow is not very bad eating, but the Democracy rush at it raw and grin with agony as they rend the tough meat.

When a Tuscarora shoots another the Times-Review calls it an "unfortunate affair." When the shooting takes place in a rival camp it is known to the T.-R. as "a cowardly murder." We've observed the same phenomenon in other able journals besides the Times-Review.

The moon-eyed lepers of San Francisco have subscribed $1200 toward relieving the yellow fever sufferers of the South. The is too much—not the $1200, but the presumption. This is another crime the coolies have to answer for. Now they must go.

The Austin Reveille, by a funny misprint, makes Cassidy of the Eureka Sentinel tell the truth for once. The Reveille in an extract from one of Cassidy's editorials makes him say: "Democracy is our religion, and treasures, not men, our creed."

A Nice Family.

NEW YORK, September 17.—The death of Ed. Malloy at the hands of the notorious Theodore Allen caused intense excitement among the sporting fraternity of this city. Public opinion is divided as to whether the shooting was accidental or intentional. Allen has led the most eventful life of any gambler in the city. He belonged to a family of six boys, five of whom have led criminal lives. Jesse died in Ohio three years ago, just after having been liberated from prison. She recently returned from Sing Sing, and Martin is now doing service for the State. During the war Theodore made $70,000 through the arrest of the ring bounty jumpers. With this money he opened the St. Bernard hotel, which became a resort for sporting men and politicians. He professed to control the colored vote in the Eight and Fifteenth wards, and was treated with much consideration by both parties. The police were believed to be always ready to overlook his offenses. It is probable that he will soon be discharged from custody, as no one witnessed the shooting and no cause of enmity between the men has been discovered.

The Victoria Chinese Trying Strategy.

VICTORIA, B. C., Sept. 17.—The Chinese tax was enforced yesterday by the seizure of goods in the merchants' store. To-day there is not a Chinaman at work for a white employer. All the cooks at the hotels, restaurants and private houses failed to make their appearance this morning. The vegetable carts have withdrawn, and much inconvenience has been caused to every one. The Chinamen this morning are walking about town dressed in their best clothes, and appear to look upon the affair as a huge joke. There is a great demand for domestics, and servants would find ready employment at good wages. The system of driving the Chinese out of the country by heavy taxation is now fairly on its trial, and it will soon be seen whether the white working classes will avail themselves of the opportunity now afforded for taking the places lately filled by the Celestials.

The Republicans of Massachusetts.

WORCESTER, September 18.—The Massachusetts Republican State convention assembled this morning. Governor Claflin was chosen permanent chairman. A resolution was offered and referred to the committee on resolutions, demanding that the corrupt, incompetent and unnecessary officers and employees entrenched in the Boston Custom house and other public offices of the State shall at once be discharged, and that such places as the public good requires shall be filled with honest, God-fearing capable law-abiding citizens.

MR. GARRISON'S GAS.

How He Proposes to Freeze Out the Yellow Fever.

(Virginia Chronicle.)

W. W. Garrison, the drawing teacher in the public schools, claims to have discovered an infallible preventive and cure for yellow fever. He has registered his discovery and explained it to a Chronicle reporter to-day. His plan is to erect a large gasometer, which is to be filled with some kind of gas, the name and manufacture of which he holds a secret. From this are to be various pipes leading into residences. In fact it is to be a duplicate of the system for gas illumination. The gas he manufactures can be made at a trivial cost, and possesses the property of reducing the air to a freezing temperature. Now, since the yellow fever germs are destroyed by freezing, he claims that his gas, which is also a powerful disinfectant, will effectually destroy the fever. By turning a stop-cock in one's room, it will convert the room on a hot summer's day from an oven, as it were, into a refrigerator. Mr. Garrison is enthusiastic over his discovery, and invites an investigation into its merits or demerits.

A Christian View of It.

(Eureka Leader.)

"Now, this is suthin like old times," said a grizzly veteran who had just retired from Jack Perry's bar, as he wiped his mouth with his coat-sleeve. Four fingers of genuine Bourbon was coursing through the old stiff's veins, and he was feeling like a Mississippi steamer after a barrel of rosin had been chucked under the boilers. "I'd about gin things up, and it 'peared to me if they was no room for me round here any longer. These new comers 'tain't got any sympathy with us fellows that helped to build up the State, and they've sorter got into the habit of overlookin' us pioneers. Its workin' better now. These fellows what are droppin' in, lookin' fur the loaves an' fishes, as my friend puts it, feel like gettin' my political infloence, an' I cotton to the man what's most liberal, y'et. The man what sets 'em up the offendest, he's the man what I'll pull fur, from Guv'nor down. I ain't proud, an' it ain't cause I want drink, but God Amighty never loved a stingy man, an' I'm a Christian that far. Here he caught the eye of a gentleman who was about to treat, and ambled up to the bar as lively as if his joints were not stiffened by years of whisky-soaking and pioneer experience. He will be happy for the next five days, for this is a week of conventions, and the 'old boys' will not be overlooked."

A Wonderful Inventor.

(Sacramento Bee.)

A few years since Mr. George Greiner, piano maker and tuner, of this city, conceived the idea of combining two instruments in one. After long study, much labor in experimenting and large sums of money expended he has placed before the world what he has pleased to term the violin piano. As the name implies it is a violin and piano combined. At the urgent solicitation of his friends he placed it on exhibition at the Centennial where it received the encomiums from all the musical critics. It can now be seen in the upper hall of the pavilion, near the centre. None should fail to see and hear the richness of tone and volume of sound produced by this wonderful instrument. All pronounce it as the instrument of the future; and for the composer, orchestra, concert room or church it is invaluable. The inventor and owner, Mr. Greiner, will be happy to explain and show the various advantages claimed for this piano.

Another Indian Outbreak Feared.

BOISE CITY, Idaho, Sept. 17.—There is great dissatisfaction and anxiety here caused by General McDowell enforcing the order reducing Fort Boise from a four to a two-company post. Many settlers have abandoned their homes. Others will do so unless more troops are stationed here. The Indians are certain to raid the country again from Camas Prairie when the troops leave. Colonel Green's command is expected about the 22d instant. I leave in the morning for the Malheur country and Camp Harney, where more trouble is expected. A half-breed named Humboldt Joe has been killed at Cape Horn creek, near Yankee fork, hostile Weiser Indians. His partner, prospecting with him, had his clothing riddled with bullets, but escaped.

An Unnaturalized Delegate.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 17.—Thomas Morris, delegate elect of the Workingmen's party of this city to the constitutional convention, concerning whose citizenship some doubts have recently been raised, now admits that he is not a citizen, all previous statements to the contrary notwithstanding, and has tendered his resignation to the Ward Presidents. His case will probably be taken up by the Election Commission. It is understood that the Workingmen's delegates will present to the convention the name of Judge Sharpstein to fill the vacancy.

Kinkead and Daggett.

(Eureka Sentinel, Wednesday.)

This is the ticket which seems to be in greater favor with a majority of the delegates to the Republican State convention—the former for Governor and the latter for Congress. To-day will more fully develop the true inwardness of the contest, but if we were compelled at this writing to put down the names of the coming men, we should unhesitatingly name Kinkead and Daggett.

Society in Elko.

Mr. Jones of Elko gave a little party the other evening and as he didn't invite everybody in the town, as he was in duty bound to do, he is in fear of assassination and publishes the following card in the Independent of Tuesday:

Having become aware that some unfriendly feeling has been engendered among some of my neighbors and acquaintances in consequence of their names having been omitted from the list of invited guests to attend the festivities of a recent occasion at my dwelling, I wish to say that if the course pursued has given offense to any person worthy of esteem, it is a source of deep regret to me; but my house being merely a private dwelling, the number of persons invited was necessarily limited, and the much more agreeable privilege of entertaining all my friends, being denied me. Respectfully,
E. J. JONES.

Yellow Fever.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 18.—Deaths yesterday, 62; new cases, 523, of which 122 occurred prior to the 14th inst.

Baton Rouge reports two deaths yesterday and 32 new cases.

Canton, Miss., reports 20 new cases and 22 deaths. Total cases to date, 424; deaths 68.

CARLO, Ill., Sept. 18.—John Crofton, the last of the ill-fated Bulletin employees who took the fever last week died Monday night in the hospital.

MEMPHIS, Sept. 18.—For the 24 hours ending at noon yesterday there were 101 deaths.

NEW YORK Sept. 18.—This city has raised to date $252,000 for the Southern sufferers. Total number of yellow fever deaths to date, 5612; total cases at New Orleans, 6700; at Vicksburg, 3500; at Memphis, 6000.

The Glanders.

(S. F. Alta.)

A. de Labrouse, a French veterinary surgeon writes to the Courier de San Francisco that it is his opinion much needless alarm is felt here in reference to the glanders; that the disease is not so common as reported; that an unimportant discharge from the nose, caused by a cold has been mistaken for it in some cases, and that he found it so in three out of a number of horses supposed to him to be affected with it and brought to him for examination. The symptoms of the glanders, according to him, are that the nostrils swell, become hard and painful, and adhere to the bone; that the discharge flows on only one side, and that usually the left, and that ulceration appears in the nostrils.

Honey.

The Anaheim Gazette thus speaks of the honey interests in that part of California: Some idea of the immense amount of honey raised in this vicinity may be gleaned from the fact that C. Willie, one of our local coopers, has made 1200 honey barrels this season, each barrel holding from 30 to 25 gallons, and he is still at work filling orders for more. It must be remembered, also, that there is a vast quantity of honey shipped from here in five-gallon cans, but we are glad to state that this practice is gradually becoming obsolete. The honey that is shipped in barrels is justly looked upon with more favor. It is not very long ago since the Beekeepers' Association recommended shippers of honey to use the barrels manufactured by Anaheim coopers.

Fast Trotting in Missouri.

KANSAS CITY, September 18.—The great event of the day was Lulu's achievement. The track, owing to a dearth of rain and severe use by running horses, was in bad condition and considered 9 to 8 seconds slow. Despite these drawbacks, Lulu trotted the best heats made by her since she defeated Goldsmith Maid in 1869. The first heat was made in 5-24 she breaking badly. The second heat was made in 2-30, skipping but once. The third was made in 3-21, without a skip. The fact of this being a half-mile track, and in bad condition, the performance was considered remarkable.

The Eastern Situation.

VIENNA, September 18.—General Copray and the reinforcements which crossed the Save on the 11th instant have commenced action. They have occupied the important towns of Gradaca and Gracinica. In the latter case they were unopposed. In Banjoluka District, Jaitze and some adjacent villages have been burned. The insurgents defending them dispersed after prolonged fighting. The Austrians in the small engagements lost 150 men killed and wounded. An Austrian battalion fell into an ambushade between Trekinjez and Black and lost three officers and eighty men. Adjutant-General Nagy is missing.

Body-Snatching in Ohio.

CLEVELAND, Sept.—A case of body-snatching has been discovered at Willoughby, where a medical college was found to have possession of the freshly-buried corpse of Edwin French, a prominent citizen. Warrants were sworn out for the arrest of the Dean and about a dozen members of the college by a son of the deceased. The faculty affirm ignorance of the matter.

Murder and Suicide in Ohio.

CHARDER, Ohio, Sept. 18.—Mrs. Charles Morse, during an insane fit yesterday, killed her little daughter and cut her own throat.

Gambetta's Popularity.

PARIS, September 18.—Gambetta is making a political tour. He has been enthusiastically received at Lyons, Vienna and other towns.

Compound Syrup!
—OF—
HYPOPHOSPHITES.

THIS DISCOVERY
Is the result of a series of scientific experiments based upon the theory that "for the successful cure of Wasting Diseases, the new system must be made vigorous and healthy."

One of the first symptoms of disease affecting either the Liver, Lungs, Heart, Stomach, or Genital Organs, is a loss of nervous power. This is followed by muscular relaxation, weakness, and emaciation of all the organs, and depend upon them for health or involuntary muscular action, the weaker suffering first.

The inventor, acting upon this idea, that the muscles and nerves depend upon each other for efficient strength and action, and that they must be treated directly in order to speedily and permanently cure diseases of the organs which they control, became convinced, after months of experiment, that no other preparation produced such potent and direct effects upon the nervous system as his

and except in cases of actual organic loss, that it would restore patients suffering from those maladies.

Amongst the diseases overcome by the use of this remedy are the following:—

Chronic Constipation,
Chronic Dyspepsia,
Asthma,
Chronic Bronchitis,
Consumption,
Chronic Diarrhea,
Chronic Laryngitis,
Melancholy,
Nervous Debility.

Debility, resulting from Typhoid and other low fevers, Diphtheritic Prostration, Hysteria, Hypochondria, Nervous Excitability, Marasmus or Wasting of the Muscles, Aphonia or Loss of Voice, Stagnation of the Liver, Interrupted and Feeble Action of the Heart, Surrogate of the Lungs and Air Passages leading thereto, and Debility from various causes.

Indigestion and habitual Constipation almost always arise from weakness of the muscles and nerves of the stomach and bowels. In such cases, the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites has proved itself of the greatest service by inducing healthy peristaltic action of the intestines. The evacuations soon become copious and healthy, without producing the effect of purgative medicine.

Weakness of the Blood, and INWARD WASTING may be cured by attention to the regular described doses, and by due regard to the habits of life.

Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites
The power of arresting diseases displayed by this preparation is honorably acknowledged by the medical faculty in every section where it has been introduced. Its sale is the best guarantee of the estimation in which it is held by the public.

This Syrup is a PULMONARY CONSUMPTION in the first and second stages, will give great relief and prolong life in the third. It will cure Asthma, Bronchitis, Laryngitis and Coughs. It will cure all diseases originating from want of MUSCULAR ACTION and NERVOUS FORCE.

Sold by all Druggists.
